CAMERON NEWBAUER

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA HEAD COACH

FIRST YEAR AT FLORIDA | FIFTH YEAR OVERALL

You would be hard pressed to find someone whose personality oozes enthusiasm, excitement, passion and warmth like that of Cameron Newbauer.

His excitement is contagious and memorable.

Those traits – not to mention Newbauer's success on the basketball court – caught the attention of Florida Athletics Director Scott Stricklin, who named Nawbauer the 10th head coach of the University of Florida women's basketball program on March 27, 2017.

Newbauer (38), spent the previous four seasons as head coach at Belmont University, located in Nashville, Tennessee. Under Newbauer, the Bruins reached the postseason three times, including NCAA Tournament berths the last two seasons.

Belmont won 35 of its last 36 games against Ohio Valley Conference opponents – a run that included league tournament games – and sported an overall 25-game win streak entering the 2017 NCAA Tournament before its 73-70 first-round loss at Kentucky.

The Bruins were 51-15 overall and 35-3 in OVC action over the last two years, winning the OVC regular-season championship last year and the league's tournament title the last two seasons. Newbauer, who compiled a 79-50 record at BU, was named the 2016-17 OVC Coach of the Year.

The Fort Wayne, Indiana, native has been a women's basketball assistant coach at Louisville and Georgia and a men's assistant at Siena College, while also working as a director of basketball operations for Georgia's men's team and at Siena.

Belmont Highlights Under Newbauer

- The 2016-17 Bruins won the OVC regular-season title for the first time in program history and captured the OVC Tournament championship for the second consecutive year.
- Newbauer was recognized by his peers as the 2016-17 OVC Coach of the Year, the first Bruin coach to earn the honor.
- Following the 2015-16 season, Darby Maggard was named the program's first OVC Freshman of the Year, while Sally McCabe was honored as the team's inaugural recipient of the Defensive Player of the Year award. McCabe repeated the honor following the 2016-17 campaign, as she ranked among the nation's top 15 for blocked shots while becoming just the second player in league history to win the top defensive honor twice.
- During 2016-17, Belmont ranked in the top 20 nationally in 12 statistical categories, including third for rebound margin, 11th for assists per game, 13th for three-point field goals made, 14th for three-pointers made per game, 14th for three-point field goal percentage and 17th for scoring offense.

"We're going to have fun. I want people to get to know us. We will welcome the community and want them to help build a tremendous environment." – Coach Cam

History of the SEC

Dec. 8-9, 1932

The 13 members of the Southern Conference west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganize to form the Southeastern Conference. In 1940, Martin S. Conner, former Mississippi Governor, is named first SEC commissioner.

1933

The first SEC champions were crowned in four sports (baseball, men's basketball, football and men's outdoor track). The league's inaugural championship was a basketball tournament.

Feb. 21, 1948

Bernie Moore becomes the SEC's second full-time commissioner and moves the league offices to Birmingham, Ala.

April 1, 1966

A.M. "Tonto" Coleman becomes the SEC's third commissioner. Under Coleman, the SEC admits its first black athlete, Kentucky football player Nat Northington.

- The addition of a day to the tournament will feature two additional contests played on Wednesday.
- Seeds 11 through 14 will compete in the opening games of the bracket, with the rest of the event continuing on Thursday.

ALL 14 TEAMS

- "The high profile of the tournament and the fact that it gives every institution the opportunity to play and compete for a championship was very important in the conversation about expanding the tournament. Our league is good enough to include all 14 teams and give them the opportunity to compete and win the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament." - SEC Assistant Commissioner Leslie Claybrook

- Only two other Gators have been the team's leading scorer in three different seasons: U.S. Olympian Tammy Jackson led the team in 1981-82, 1982-83 and 1984-85; and WNBA star Merlakia Jones was UF's leading scorer in 1991-92, 1993-94 and 1994-85.
- Williams become the first Gator ever to lead the team in scoring in three consecutive seasons.

GATOR WATCH

- In addition to leading the Gators in scoring with 19.2 points per game (20.1 ppg in SEC games), Ronni Williams also led the squad in rebounding (7.8 pg) and free throw percentage (73.4%) and is second for assists (70) and field goal percentage (54.2%).
- With her 43-point, 14-rebound effort against Vanderbilt (Jan. 29), she became the first SEC player to drop 40 and 10 since in a game since the 2003 season!
- Williams became the 24th Gator to score 1,000 career points, doing so on Dec. 3 vs. Long Beach State.
- She became the 15th Gator to collect 700 career rebounds, eclipsing the mark on January 5 at LSU.
- Scored her 1,400th career point in February 23 game at Tennessee.
- Collected her 800th career rebound in February 26 game vs. Georgia and became the ninth Gator to top the 1,400-point, 800-rebound marks.

OPENED WITH 9 ... THEN HAD 10 ... BACK TO 9 ... DOWN TO 8

- The Gators opened the season with a 12-player roster, however just nine suited up for the first four games of the 2016-17 campaign.
- During the fifth game (at Northwestern, Nov. 25), freshman Sydney Morang suited up and played three minutes. Morang had not played prior to this due to concussion symptoms. After undergoing months of testing and observation, she was cleared by physicians to finally play in a game.
- Testing showed that freshman Elif Portakal broke a bone in her foot and was ruled out of game action beginning Dec. 8 at Florida State. She missed 10 games and returned to the court Jan. 22 at Georgia. Her return marked nine players ready for action!
- In the days following the FSU game, then-leading scorer Eleanna Christinaki parted ways with the team, leaving the Gators with eight players for their Dec. 11 game against N.C. A&T.
- Senior Simone Westbrook, a member of the 2016 SEC All-Defensive Team, tore her ACL in August and will miss the season.
- Junior Funda Nakkasoglu joined the Gators from Utah State and must sit out the year per NCAA rules for transfers.

WELCOME BACK

- Freshman Elif Portakal had been sidelined with an injury and missed the last 10 games prior to entering the January 22 contest against Georgia at the 5:13 mark of the second quarter.

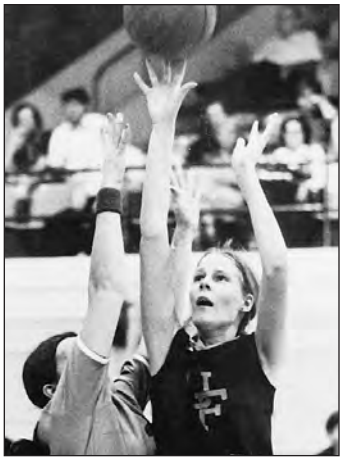
HISTORY

FLORIDA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

HISTORY OF FLORIDA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL



Sue Chambers was the first woman to receive a basketball scholarship at UF.

Winter 1972 – Dr. Ruth Alexander, Donna Deutsch, Mimi Ryan and Linda Hall Thornton, with the assistance of Dr. Clifford Boyd, write the official proposal suggesting guidelines for an intercollegiate athletics program at the University of Florida.

March 1972 – The University of Florida's Faculty Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics unanimously approves the proposal with the effective date to be the 1972-73 school year.

1973-74 school year – The inaugural UF women's basketball squad is a club team and posts an 11-8 record under coach Darlene Wyrnak, who is a graduate assistant at the school. Members of that team include Valerie Bazarte, Susie Brownlee, Sue Chambers, Emma Gracey, Vicky Lavinsky, Cassie Macias, Kathy Wagner and Monte Wynn.

July 1974 – Dr. Paula Welch is hired as the Lady Gators first official coach and teaches in the Women's Physical Education Department.

Jan. 13, 1975 – Florida makes its varsity debut in Alligator Alley, but Valdosta State spoils the team's opener, defeating UF 57-47 despite 17 points from Sue Chambers.

Jan. 18, 1975 – Emma Gracey's 14 points leads the Lady Gators to their first-ever win, a 51-47 victory over Rollins College and sparks a seven-game winning streak.

July 21, 1975 – Guidelines for the Education Act of 1972, Title IX, is signed into law by U.S. President Gerald R. Ford.

Feb. 29, 1976 – The Lady Gators steal front page sports headlines in The Gainesville Sun, which reviews the squad's three-game sweep, capped by a 53-39 victory over Florida State, that gave UF its first state championship ever in women's team competition.

March 1976 – The team boards the UF University Athletic Association aircraft, "The Blue Goose," and travels to their first-ever Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) regional tournament held in Cleveland, Miss.

March 11, 1976 – UF downs Alabama 64-56 in the first round of the AIAW Regional III Tournament, but suffered their worst loss in program history later that same day, losing 132-49 to No. 4-ranked Mississippi College to end the season with a 16-8 record.

March 1976 – The College of Physical Education, Health and Recreation reorganize and eliminate dual teaching and coaching positions. Welch, who had planned to continue both, resigns as coach so she can devote more time to teaching and researching sport history.

1976-77 season – Cathy Davis, the trainer during the previous season, is hired to double up her responsibilities as trainer and coach, while completing her master's degree.

Nov. 13, 1976 – Freshman Quientella Bonner becomes the first six-footer to play for UF. She goes on to grab a UF-record 1,321 rebounds during her four-year career, a mark that still stands.

Jan. 8, 1977 – UF logs its first-ever victory over a Georgia team, when Bonner tallied 28 points with 31 rebounds in a 79-67 win against Georgia Southern. Bonner's 31-rebound effort still remains the Lady Gators' and the SEC's all-time single-game record.

Feb. 26, 1977 – UF captures it second straight FAIAW Tournament with a 72-60 win over FSU.

1977-78 season – The team finishes third at the FAIAW tournament and goes 2-1 in the AIAW Regional, but suffers the first losing season in program history with a 12-14 record.

Robin Pokoj, '85

"One of the funniest moments I can remember was when (coach) Mickie DeMoss was giving us a pep talk at half time in the lockeroom and stomping her foot on the floor. Her heel came off and flew across the lockeroom but she didn't want to crack a smile and spoil the moment so she hobbled over to the chalk board and continued to draw plays."

March 8, 1979 – The Lady Gators advance to the AIAW Region III Tournament as a result of their runner-up state finish, but lose to Mississippi 101-78 to end the season. Future Lady Gator coach Carol Ross scores six points and grabs a team-high nine rebounds in helping her Lady Rebels to victory.

April 1979 – Davis decides not to pursue the Lady Gators' coaching position, which is expanded into a full-time job. UF is 38-40 during her three-year tenure.

1979-80 season – Mickie DeMoss becomes the first full-time coach for women's basketball at UF. Barbara Holzworth joins DeMoss on the sideline as the program's first full-time assistant coach.

Feb. 7, 1980 – The Lady Gators avenge an early season loss to Mississippi State and defeat the Lady Bulldogs 68-62 in the first round of the inaugural Southeastern Conference Women's Basketball Tournament, played in Knoxville, Tenn. UF loses to the eventual-champion Lady Vols the next day. Future Lady Gator coach Carol Ross is named to the All-Tournament team after leading Ole Miss to second place.

Feb. 21-24, 1980 – UF defeats FSU twice, including an 84-71 victory in the title game of the FAIAW Tournament, as the Lady Gators take their third state crown. Barbara Chennault tallied 23 points, while Cheryl Fisher added 20 in the final game.

Lady Gators Tops

Coach Paula Welch

"This is just great. We've got a group of happy people up here and without a doubt, this is the greatest win of my career." – coach Paula Welch told the Gainesville Sun on Feb. 29, 1976, after the Lady Gators captured UF's first-ever team state championship

1993 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

In just her third season as Lady Gators Head Coach, Carol Ross was able to achieve a first in the program's 18-year history: earn a bid to the 48-team NCAA Tournament field. Led by senior captain LaTonya McGhee and junior guard Amanda Butler, Florida proved it belonged in postseason play. The Lady Gators opened the tournament on the road at Bowling Green State University on March 17 before a school-record crowd of 4,408 in Anderson Arena, which was also the third largest crowd attendance in a first round game. UF halted the Falcons' perfect 13-0 home record when McGhee banked in a 15-footer with two seconds remaining to give UF the thrilling 69-67 victory. Merlakia Jones led UF with 18 points and Bridget Pettis added 17 in the historic win. The Lady Gators traveled again in the second round, but came up short against postseason veteran Virginia in front of 5,740 Cavalier faithful. McGhee ended her career with a 14-point effort but more importantly helped lay the foundation for seven consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

1994 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Under the leadership of senior captain Amanda Butler, the Lady Gators reached the NCAA Tournament for the second straight year. The Gators matched a school-record 22 wins and finished third in the SEC. Junior Merlakia Jones led UF offensively with 18.6 points per game, while DeLisha Milton averaged a double-double of 11.7 points and 11.5 rebounds during her freshman campaign. The Lady Gators earned the No. 4 seed in the NCAA West Region and were eligible to play host to their first round game, but were forced to travel to College Station, Texas, due to a Rod Stewart concert scheduled in the O'Connell Center. Florida rallied from a 14-point deficit against hosting Texas A&M and tied the score at 74 with 2:31 remaining after senior Kerry Cremeans caned a three-pointer off an assist from Butler. Takilya Davis later hit a jumper to give UF a 76-74 lead. With the score knotted at 76, the Gators turned the ball over with 21 seconds left and the Aggies converted two free throws with four ticks on the clock to end UF's season.

1995 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The Lady Gators earned their third consecutive bid to the NCAA Championship, one of just 22 schools to advance to "The Dance" for the third straight year. Led by captains DeLisha Milton and Crystal Parker, the team won a school-record 24 wins and finished fourth in the SEC. During the first round of the NCAA East Regional in Charlottesville, Va., UF played Radford and easily defeated the Highlanders 89-49. Both Merlakia Jones and Milton produced double-doubles and Dana Smith contributed three second-half treys. In the second round, and for the second time in three years, the Lady Gators faced a ranked Virginia squad on its home floor. The team was in position for an upset, but the Cavalier proved to be too strong, winning 72-67. UF was led by Merlakia Jones' 27 points, who became the first Gator to eclipse the 2,000-point plateau, ending her career with 2,001. Freshman Murriel Page showed signs of the All-American she would later develop into, averaging 10.6 points and 7.2 rebounds during her rookie season.

1996 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

For the fourth time in school history, the Lady Gators secured a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Led by team captains DeLisha Milton and Mahogany Hudson, Florida earned the No. 5 seed in the Mideast Region and became one of 16 teams to earn four straight NCAA bids. Crystal Parker also became the first player in Lady Gator history to be a member of four NCAA Tournament teams. UF ran into red-shot San Francisco in the opening round, falling 68-61, as the Lady Dons marched into the Sweet 16 by upsetting host Duke in the next game. Former Gator Amanda Butler broke into the coaching ranks this year, when Head Coach Carol Ross hired her as an assistant coach at the start of the season.

1997 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The 1996-97 academic year marked the 25th season of women's varsity athletics at the University of Florida and the Lady Gator Basketball team ensured it would not be soon forgotten, staging the most impressive postseason run in program history. First-Team All-American DeLisha Milton, along with fellow co-captain Mahogany Hudson, led the Lady Gators a 24-9 overall record. As the No. 3 seed in the Mideast Region, UF was selected to play host to an NCAA Sub-Regional for the first time and responded, thumping Florida International, 92-68, behind 21 points from Dana Smith and a career-high six 3-pointers from Talatha Bingham. Murriel Page scored 35 points with 14 rebounds in a 92-78 victory over Southern California and the Lady Gators marched into the Sweet 16 for the first time in school history. UF's magical run did not stop there, as UF routed fifth-ranked and second-seeded Louisiana Tech, 71-57, to advance to the Elite Eight. The historical season finally came to an end when second-ranked and top-seeded Old Dominion managed a 53-51 decision, as UF had three shots in the final 10 seconds that would have tied the score, but all just rolled around the rim.

1998 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Led by First-Team All-American Murriel Page and her fellow senior co-captains Mahogany Hudson and Dana Smith, the Lady Gators fought through an injury-plagued season to a 23-9 record, their fifth consecutive 20-win season and a second-place finish in the Southeastern Conference. UF became one of just 12 schools to compete in each of the last six NCAA Tournaments, while earning its second consecutive trip to the Sweet 16. UF was rewarded for its outstanding regular-season play, being named one of 16 schools to host an NCAA Sub-Regional, which it did for the second straight year. In a bracket plagued with upsets (highlighted by No. 16-seed Harvard defeating No. 1-seed Stanford), the third-seeded Lady Gators couldn't continue the fun as they fell to No. 2-seeded Duke, 71-58.

1999 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The Lady Gators knew that matching the success of the past two seasons would be tough, especially after losing three key seniors. Even with an uphill battle, Florida, led by team captain Talatha Bingham, was still strong enough to earn its seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament bid - one of just 11 teams to compete in the "Big Dance" every year since 1993. UF was also one of a record-setting eight SEC schools to secure a bid. The Lady Gators would not dance long, however, dropping a frustrating 87-84 overtime decision to Arizona in the opening round.

2001 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The 2000-01 season was one of the most exciting in school history, as the Lady Gators tied a school record with 24 wins and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Captains Tombi Bell, Misty Knight and Tamara Stocks were fueled all season by what they felt was a snub from the 2000 event and led Florida to a second-place tie in the Southeastern Conference, winning a program-best 11 league games. This was the eighth overall trip to the "Big Dance" for the Gators and their third time playing host to the opening rounds.

2002 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

For the ninth time in 10 years, Carol Ross successfully led the Lady Gators to the NCAA Tournament. Stunningly, it would be her last because six days after the final horn sounded on Florida's opening-round loss, Ross stepped down as winningest head coach in school history, with a record of 247-121. The team was led by senior tri-captains Monique Cardenas, Lindsey DeLoach and Brandi McCain.

2004 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Head Coach Carolyn Peck guided UF to the greatest one-year turnaround in school history, bouncing back from a 9-19 record the previous season to a 19-11 record and an NCAA Tournament bid. Captains Vanessa Hayden, Sarah Lowe and Kelly Stevenson led the Gators to a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the second round for the sixth time in school history. UF overcame 16,000 deafening New Mexico fans at The Pit with an opening-round 68-56 win against the hosting Lobos, before falling in the next game to Baylor, which went on to win the NCAA title the following season.

2006 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Fueled by two of the biggest upset wins in program history, the Gators earned their way back into the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time. Senior tri-captain Sarah Lowe hit the game-winning free throws with 3.2 seconds remaining in overtime to help the Gators upset No. 2 LSU, 79-78, in UF's final home game. A few nights later, senior tri-captain Brittany Davis poured in a career-high 29 points to help stun No. 5 Tennessee in the regular-season finale, as UF became just the second unranked team ever to defeat the Lady Vols in Knoxville. The Gators, who raced out to the best 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15-game starts in program history en route to a 21-9 overall record, received the No. 6 seed in the NCAA Albuquerque Region but dropped their opening-round game to New Mexico, 83-59.

2009 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

With senior Sha Brooks leading the backcourt and senior Marsahe Dotson patrolling the frontcourt, the Gators won four games against nationally-ranked teams, including three upset victories, and earned their 12th NCAA Tournament appearance. Amanda Butler became the sixth woman in NCAA history to play for and later coach the same team to a top-25 ranking, as the 2008-09 squad ranked as high as No. 9 in the Feb. 9 AP Poll. Newcomer Steffi Sorensen led a record-setting three-point shooting display, as the Gators set new marks with 221 three-pointers and hitting them with a 36.5 percent accuracy mark. UF downed Temple, 70-57, in the NCAA First Round and tied a program record with its 24th win of the season. The Gators fell in the next round to eventual champion Connecticut, which played on its home court and raced to an undefeated season.

2012 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

A veteran team that featured five seniors helped the 2011-12 Gators earn the program's 18th postseason appearance in the last 20 years, making its 13th trip to the NCAA Championship. Florida, which compiled a 20-13 overall record and the 12th 20-win season in Gator history, upset No. 16/19-ranked Ohio State in the first round before falling to top-ranked and eventual NCAA champion Baylor. The NCAA second-round appearance was the eighth in program history and the Gator's first since 2009, also the last time Florida competed in the Big Dance. As a team, Florida held opponents to 60.8 points per game - the second-fewest in a season in the 38-year history of the program. The 1983-84 squad held its foes to 59.1 points per game. Opponents shot 38.3 percent from the floor, the lowest since the 2000-01 Gators limited foes to a 36.9 percent clip. Florida also sported a +5.3 rebound margin, its best since the 2000-01 team held a +7.9 margin. Junior forward Jennifer George, who was voted by the league's coaches as a first-team All-SEC performer, led UF in scoring (12.8 ppg) and rebounding (8.8 rpg), an effort that also ranked second in the SEC (in SEC games and all games). Senior Jordan Jones did a bit of everything for the Gators during 2011-12, contributing 11.2 points, in addition to 3.8 rebounds, 1.8 assists and 1.1 steals, while hitting 67-of-198 treys (33.8%).

2014 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Seniors Jaterra Bonds and Lily Svete headlined a very curious 2013-14 Florida women's basketball squad that entered the season with just nine healthy players after redshirt-sophomore Viktorija Dimaite re-tore the same left ACL that held her out of the entire 2012-13 campaign. Redshirt-junior Kayla Lewis was the only member of her athletic class and was joined by six sophomores, only two of whom where 'true' second-year players. Despite suiting up just eight players for the majority of the season, this 2014 band of Gators showed the grit and fight of their seventh-year head coach Amanda Butler and earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament as the No. 11 seed. UF faced its largest deficit of the game (12 points) with just over 15 minutes remaining, but outscored No. 6 Dayton in the second half, 54-37, to earn a date with No. 3 and host Penn State. UF was picked to finish 10th in the SEC during preseason polls by the league's coaches and media, but battled to place fifth and won 20 games for the fourth consecutive season.

FLORIDA'S NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAMS

2016 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

While Florida's roster featured five seniors, it was truely a balenced effort that helped the Gators earn the No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament. On the 13-player roster... 10 Gators averaged at least 12 minutes of playing time per game; 10 Gators averaged at least 4.9 points per game; 11 Gators made at least one three-pointer; 11 Gators started at least one game during their respective Gator careers; 9 DIFFERENT Gators were UF's leading scorer in a game this season; 7 DIFFERENT Gators were UF's leading rebounder in a game this season; and 6 DIFFERENT Gators scored 20 or more points in a game this season. UF ranked No. 16 in the nation in scoring offense (77.4 ppg), however, the team's leading scorers - junior Ronni Williams and freshman Eleanna Christinaki - averaged just 11.1 and 10.4 points per game, respectively. Sophomore Haley Lorenzen averaged 9.3 points, while senior Cassie Peoples and junior Simone Westbrook were close behind at 8.8 and 8.0 per game, respectively. Florida was picked to finish 12th of 14 teams in the preseason SEC Poll by coaches and media and tied for fourth place in the final standings. The No. 5-seeded Gators played No. 12-seeded UAlbany (NY) in the NCAA opening round at the Carrier Dome in Syracuse, N.Y., where Florida had a comfortable 37-22 lead at halftime, but somewhere between the break and the start of the second half, the Gators lost their shooting touch. UAlbany outscored the Gators 19-7 in the fourth quarter when Florida hit just one field goal after Lorenzen put the Gators up 57-46 with 7:49 left. The Gators didn't score again until senior January Miller's basket with 0.4 seconds left. Florida shot just 20 percent in the second half (6 of 30) and missed 11 consecutive shots in the fourth quarter as the Great Danes went on a 15-0 run. In the end, the Gators lost an opportunity to keep their remarkable season alive, falling to the Great Danes, 61-59.

^ The final official score of the Albany-Florida game remains 61-59 based on the final progressive team totals of the official scorebook, even though final statistics indicate 61-58. The mistake was made by the official scorer in awarding a free throw to Florida that did not occur. The score remains 61-59 because Rule 224.3 states: "When all three officials leave the visual confines of the playing area the end of the game, the officials' jurisdiction has ended and the score has been approved."

2017-18 AND 2018-19 NCAA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL RULES CHANGES

- Increase the size of the restricted-area arc from 3 feet to 4 feet.

Rationale: To assist players and game officials by eliminating the confusion of two arcs on the playing court.

- The coach's box will be extended to 38 feet for the 2017-18 season. Previously, the coach's box was 28 feet in length.

Rationale: To permit coaches to better communicate with their players when play is at the opposite end of the playing court.

- The "use-it-or-lose-it" timeout in the first half has been eliminated. Coaches are allowed to carry all timeouts over to the second half.

Rationale: Permits coaches to use timeouts as necessary and have additional opportunities to advance the ball at the end of the game.

- To permit the team that advances the ball to choose which side of the playing court to inbound the ball. It is recommended that a two-inch long by two-inch wide line be extended out-of-bounds from the sideline opposite the scorers' table.

Rationale: To permit more strategy when advancing the ball

- The 10-second backcourt count will not be reset when the offensive team calls a timeout.

Rationale: To reward good defense and to potentially create additional possessions

- Officials will be permitted to use replay to determine if the release of the ball on a made basket occurred before the shot clock expired.

Rationale: The current rules permit a review in the last two minutes of the game regardless of whether the try is successful or not. This has created inconsistent enforcement of the rule when the try is unsuccessful. Changing the rule will permit scoring plays to be properly reviewed.

- A player must place both feet on the floor outside the lane to avoid a three-second violation.

Rationale: To reduce physicality by requiring the offensive player to physically leave the lane and assist officials in adjudicating the play.

Other Rule Changes

- A secondary defender must be outside the arc and in legal guarding position to draw a charge. If the player is in the restricted area when the contact occurs, a block will be called.
- The inside of the screener's feet shall be no wider than the screener's shoulder width.
- Flagrant 1 personal fouls and contact dead ball technical fouls will be combined and renamed unsportsmanlike fouls. Two free throws are awarded to any player of the offended team and that team is awarded the ball for a throw-in at the division line. When the foul occurs before the start of the game, the game shall begin with a jump ball. A player assessed two unsportsmanlike fouls is disqualified.
- Flagrant 2 personal fouls and flagrant 2 technical fouls will be combined and renamed disqualifying fouls. Two free throws are awarded to any player of the offended team and that team is awarded the ball for a throwin at the division line. When the foul occurs before the start of the game, the game shall begin with a jump ball.

Significant Rule Differences between NCAA Division I Men's & Women's Basketball

- NCAA women's basketball games will be played in four 10-minute quarters.
- Extra periods shall be five minutes each in length with a one-minute intermission before each.
- Teams will reach the bonus and shoot two free throws on the fifth team foul in each quarter.
- In the four-quarter format, team fouls reset to zero at the start of each quarter. However, if a team reaches the bonus in the fourth quarter, that team would remain in the bonus during any additional overtime periods.
- Reduce the time permitted to replace a disqualified player from 20 to 15 seconds.

Women's Basketball Timeout Guidelines – Commercial Format

ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, SEC NETWORK, SEC NETWORK+

Timeouts Granted and Charged – Media Timeout Format. (Rule 5-14.10).

- In games using electronic-media timeouts, each team will have three 30-second timeouts and 1 full timeouts (60 seconds in length).
- There is one electronic-media timeout in each period.
- The break between the first and second, as well as between the third and fourth periods, may be used as an electronic-media timeout.
- The first team-called timeout in the second half will become an electronic-media timeout.

- First Quarter = 1 media timeout (2:45 min, all media breaks will have first horn at 2:30); scheduled for first dead ball at or below the 5-minute mark OR at the first team-called timeout above the 5-minute mark.
- Break between First Quarter and Second Quarter = (2:45)
- Second Quarter = 1 media timeout (2:45 min); scheduled for first dead ball at or below the 5-minute mark OR at the first team-called timeout above the 5-minute mark.

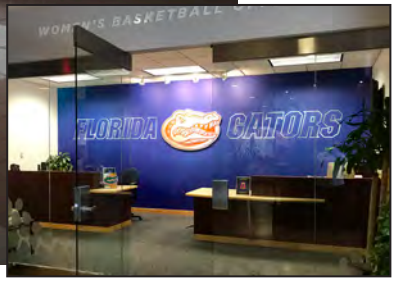
FLORIDA BASKETBALL COMPLEX

The Basketball Complex has undergone a few major 'facelifts' since its opening in October of 2001, most recently during the summer of 2013 when updated floor-to-ceiling graphics, display cases and video displays were installed throughout the building.

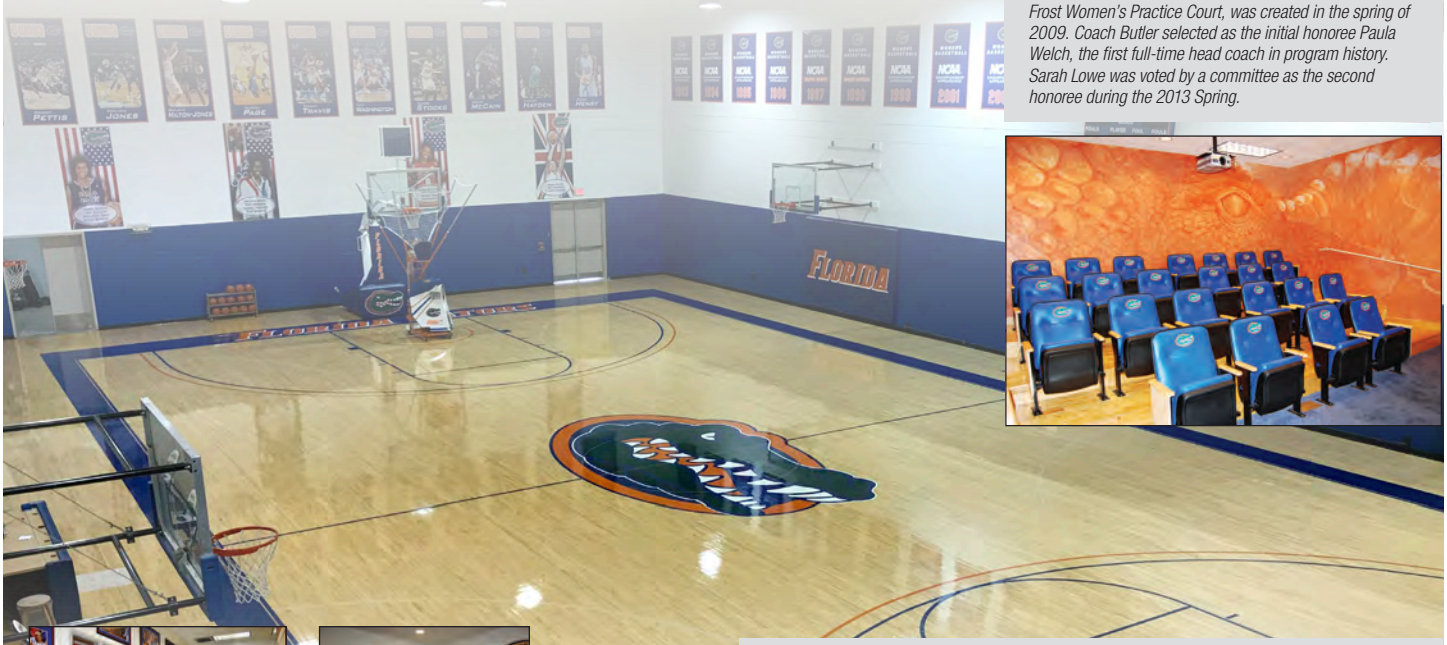
Florida's state-of-the-art basketball practice facility opened in October of 2001, with the initial $10 million securing the two-story, 47,505-square foot facility highlighted by full-sized practice courts for both the Gator men's and women's teams, in addition to the coaches' offices and team locker rooms.

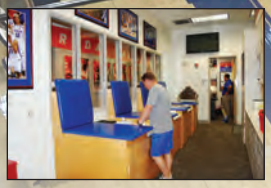


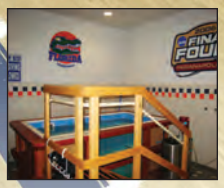
FLORIDA BASKETBALL COMPLEX

The Gator locker room is a home-away-from-home.

The Gator Women's Basketball Wall of Honor, which is along the East wall of the balcony that overlooks the Terry Frost Women's Practice Court, was created in the spring of 2009. Coach Butler selected as the initial honoree Paula Welch, the first full-time head coach in program history. Sarah Lowe was voted by a committee as the second honoree during the 2013 Spring.







The athletic training room, which houses its own whirlpool, is conveniently located steps away from the practice court.

The Terry Frost Women's Practice Court features six baskets, Conner (Uniforce with NIKE Grind) wood floor and observation/video taping balcony. As part of the 2007 facelift, a Coach's Command Center with internal AV equipment is housed behind thick plex along the wall of the practice court for coaches and players to watch immediate on-court video.

During the summer of 2015, the weight room in Florida's Basketball Complex underwent a $1 million upgrade that doubled the size to 3,000 square feet and added a fueling station.

Images of Gator All-Americans adorn the corner between the hallway's to the team locker room and the training room, practice court and weight room corridor.

EXACTECH ARENA AT THE STEPHEN C. O'CONNELL CENTER

Exactech Arena at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center - Florida's game-day facility - underwent a $64.5 million renovation that re-opened its doors for activities in mid-December 2016.

As part of the renovation, Exactech Arena now features chair-back seating throughout the lower bowl, a state-of-the-art center court-hung scoreboard, new sound system and amenity upgrades in the new concourse areas.

The first Gator women's basketball game was played in Exactech Arena on December 28, 2016 versus Southeastern Louisiana - a 102-51 Florida victory!

Florida played its first 12 games of the 2016-17 season on the road during renovations.

A RENEVATED HOME WITH A NEW NAME

The UF Board of Trustees voted to approve a collaboration that will allow Exactech, a local-bred medical device company at the forefront of joint replacement, and the O'Connell Center to share the marquee at the home for Gators athletics since 1981. The agreement brings together two Gainesville-based organizations with more than 30 years each of collaborating on education, innovation and health care.

Exactech's naming agreement is broken into two phases; a 10-year, $5.9 million pledge with an additional five-year, $3.5 million option on the back end. The multi-million dollar value of the contract was instrumental in helping UF, which owns the O'Connell Center, and the University Athletic Association, the arena's prime tenant, proceed with the ambitious $64.5 million renovation of the facility that is scheduled for completion in December. Fox Sports represented UF in helping broker the agreement.

Still based in Gainesville, Exactech has more than 700 employees who design, develop, manufacture and distribute innovative orthopedic implants and surgical instrumentation for patients undergoing shoulder, knee, hip and spine surgery.

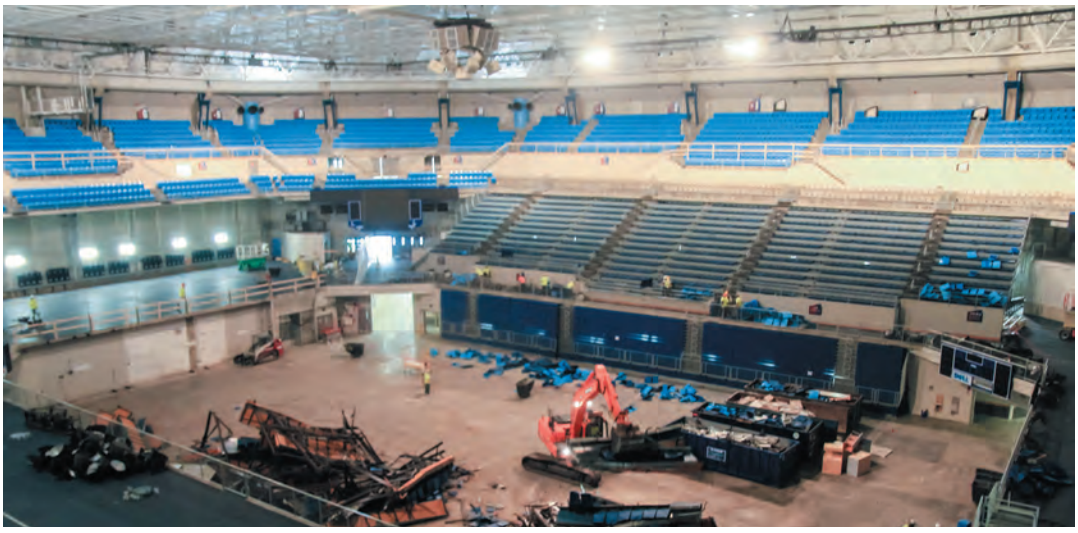
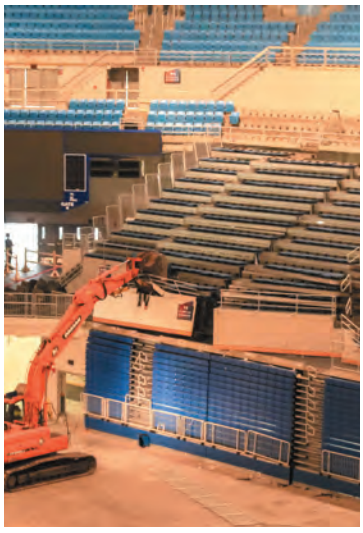
EXACTECH ARENA AT THE STEPHEN C. O'CONNELL CENTER RENOVATION PROJECT

The Exactech Arena at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center renovation project was officially a "go" during the Fall of 2015, when the University of Florida inked construction authorization paperwork with contractor Brasfield & Gorrie, one of the nation's largest privately held construction firms. The renovation of this iconic building is a unique partnership between UF and the University Athletic Association to help fund and manage the $64.5-million project.

The design process began in July 2014, and this major milestone is the culmination of the hard work of many constituencies on campus. With the planning stages of the project complete, the building process is set to begin, as Tuesday marks pre-bid meetings with subcontractors and small businesses interested in working on the project along with Brasfield & Gorrie, Davis Architects and TLC Engineering.





Renovation Frequently Asked Questions:

Q: When did the project begin?

A: The design process was completed and portions of construction began in Fall 2015. Visual manifestations of work such as construction fences began to appear as early as October 2015, though the O'Connell Center remained fully operational until the massive overhaul began in Spring 2016.

Q: When was construction completed?

A: The renovation wascompleted in time for UF's Fall semester commencement in December 2016.

Q: How much does this renovation cost?

A: The estimated cost for renovating the O'Connell Center is $64.5 million.

Q: How was the renovation funded?

A: The University of Florida and the University Athletic Association are partnering to fund the project.

Q: Was this renovation just about athletics?

A: No, though many of UF's athletic teams will benefit. The O'Connell Center hosts a wide variety of events that benefits the entire university and the Gainesville community, including UF commencement, concerts, trade shows, job fairs and local high school graduations.

Q: What did the renovation entail?

A: The strategic design and the amenity improvements involved in this project provide students, fans, alumni and patrons with a dramatically new experience. The scope of the renovation included a seating bowl update, the addition of premium seating areas, installation of a state-of-the-art center-hung scoreboard, upgrades to team spaces and an enhanced concourse to improve the fan experience.

Q: Why not just build a new arena?

A: The O'Connell Center is ideally situated in the heart of the UF campus, which makes it easily accessible and a vibrant part of student life. A new construction would have been more costly and would have had to go in a location less conducive to the many functions of the O'Connell Center.

Q: Where were Spring & Summer 2016 commencement ceremonies held?

A: UF hosted Spring commencement ceremonies at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium and Summer commencement at the Phillips Center and/or other locations on campus while the O'Connell Center was under renovation.

Q: What improvements affected gymnastics and swimming & diving?

A: The recently-renovated gymnastics studio will not be affected, but upgrades were performed on the locker room, as well as the addition of video viewing and lounge space at gymnastics. Improvements in the natatorium area included improved indoor air quality, restrooms and concessions adjacent to the natatorium, as well as a separate entrance for use when there are multiple events going on.

Q: Who worked on the renovation?

A: The project is being coordinated through the UF Planning, Design and Construction office with members of the O'Connell Center and University Athletic Association staffs providing input. The design and build team also includes Davis Architects, Brasfield & Gorrie General Contractors and TLC Engineering.

HISTORY OF EXACTECH ARENA AT THE STEPHEN C. O'CONNELL CENTER

A record-sellout crowd of 12,222 fans packed the O'Connell Center on Feb. 11, 2001 to watch the Gators battle Tennessee. It remains the largest crowd ever to watch a regular-season women's basketball game on any level - college, pro or international - inside the state of Florida.

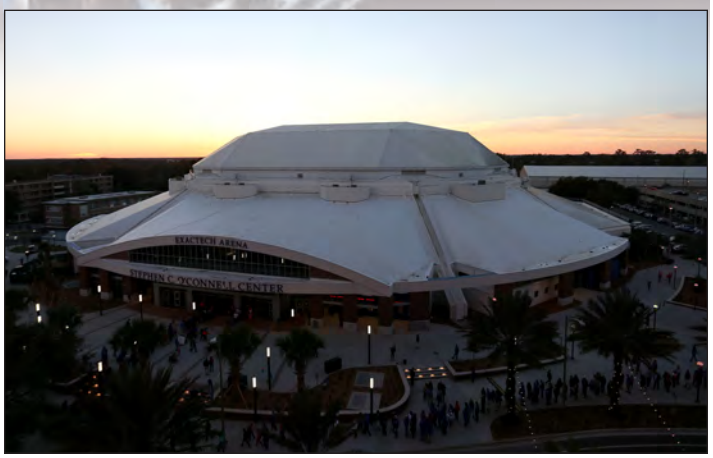
Exactech Arena at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center

Exactech Arena is the game-day home of Gator Basketball.

Built at a cost of $14 million, the O'Connell Center - named for former UF President Stephen C. O'Connell (1967-73) - is the showplace for college basketball in the state of Florida.

The multipurpose sports center features a main arena, which underwent improvements during the summer of 2011 and was capable of seating 11,373 spectators and fans, covering more than 3.6 acres and containing 292,000 square feet - all prior to the 2016 renovations.

The structure housed the Gator Basketball offices prior to the opening of the UF Basketball Complex in October of 2001.



The Stephen C. O'Connell Center has been the site of all Gator Basketball games since its opening in 1981.
